

Julia Roshkow

Born 1955, New York, NY

Lives and works in Queens, NY

Education

1977 BA in Art History, Harvard College, Cambridge, MA

1984 MD, New York University School of Medicine, New York, NY

Solo Exhibitions

2025 Islip Arts Council Gallery, Pineapples: A Color Study in Antique Gold and Faded Silk, Bay Shore, NY (upcoming)

Group Exhibitions

2025 Equity Gallery, Memento Mori: Time, Clarity and the Pursuit of Purpose, New York, NY

2024 Alterwork Studios, Night Moves, Astoria, NY

Islip Arts Council Gallery, Art for Paws, Bay Shore, NY

The Greenpoint Gallery, Salon Show, Brooklyn, NY

The Flour Shoppe Café, Flora & Flour, Bay Shore, NY

The Factory, Who's Afraid of Red, Yellow & Blue?, Long Island City, NY

Awards

2010 Best New Product Award, National Stationary Show

Design Work

2003 - 2014 Owner / Designer, Cartesian Graphics, Handmade Greeting Cards

I started Cartesian Graphics as a home-based business which grew steadily over the next decade with hundreds of customers all over the world. I created custom designs for such New York City institutions as The American Museum of Natural History, The Hayden Planetarium, and The New York Botanical Garden, and was featured in The New York Times.

1996 - 2002      Owner / Designer, Miss Pym, Children's Fashion

I created flower girl dresses for Miss Pym, a company I started with Lisa Hall. Our dresses were frequently featured in Martha Stewart Weddings and the other major bridal magazines, In 2001, I was interviewed for a wedding book written by Stacy Okun.